

U.S Environmental Protection Agency
Washington, D.C.

ADMINISTRATOR SCOTT PRUITT

Council for National Policy Meeting

DATE: May 19, 2017

EVENT TIME: 12:30PM EDT – 9:30PM EDT

LOCATION: The Ritz-Carlton Ballroom, Salons I & II, Fifth Floor; 1700 Tysons Blvd, McLean, Virginia 22102

SPEAKING TIME: 2:30PM EDT – 3:00PM EDT

AUDIENCE: Council for National Policy members

POC: Amy Greene amy@cfnp.com Ex. 6

Background:

Council for National Policy Making (CNP) is a premier conservative membership organization comprised of more than 400 of America's most influential leaders. These educational events are held three times each year to build coalitions, strengthen the conservative movement, and thus seek to restore our nation to its founding principles.

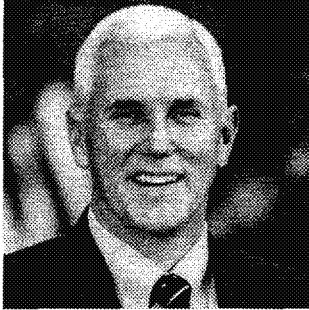

Friday, May 19, 2017

1:00PM EDT	Advance Arrives at the Ritz-Carlton (McLean, VA)
1:45PM EDT	Depart for Ritz-Carlton (McLean, VA) Address: 1700 Tysons Blvd, McLean, Virginia 22102 Mileage: 15.8 Staff: Lincoln, Millan, Forrest
2:20PM EDT	Arrive at the Ritz-Carlton (McLean, VA) Drop off location: Loading Dock Greeting: Bob McEwen and William P. Millis
2:20PM EDT	(HOLD) Move to hold room Room: The Boardroom 6 th floor
2:30PM EDT – 3:00PM EDT	Speaking Engagement: Council for National Policy Meeting Room: The Ritz-Carlton Ballrooms, Salons I & II, Fifth Floor Introduced by: Bill Walton, VP of CNP Topic: Challenges and Opportunities at EPA – how Conservatives can help you achieve your policy objectives Format: 10 minutes of brief remarks followed by a 20-minute discussion on stage with Tony Perkins (CNP president). Note: Vice President Pence, Congressman Mark Walker, and Kellyanne Conway are scheduled to be there.
3:00PM EDT – 3:30PM EDT	Depart McLean for Office Pick up location: Loading Dock

TOPIC/TALKING POINTS: Lincoln preparing.

PRESS: CLOSED

NEED TO KNOW PARTICIPANTS:

Vice President Pence: Born in Indiana in 1959, U.S. Vice President Mike Pence attended Hanover College and the Indiana University McKinney School of Law. After losing two bids for a U.S. congressional seat, he became a conservative radio and TV talk show host in the 1990s. Pence successfully ran for Congress in 2000, rising to the powerful position of Republican conference chairman, before being elected governor of Indiana in 2012. In July 2016, Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump selected Pence as his vice presidential running mate. On November 8, 2016, Pence was elected vice president of the United States when Trump won the presidential race.

He was sworn in as the U.S. Vice President on January 20, 2017. Speaking at 1:30PM EDT – 2:00PM EDT

House Majority Whip Steve Scalise: is a Republican member of the U.S. House of Representatives representing Louisiana's 1st Congressional District. Scalise was first elected to the House in a 2008 special election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rep. Bobby Jindal. He is the current House majority whip. He beat out Marlin Stutzman (R-IN) and Peter Roskam (R-IL) for the position. The whip post became open when Kevin McCarthy (R-CA) took over for Eric Cantor as majority leader. He previously was a member of the Louisiana State Senate in 2008 and a member of the Louisiana House of Representatives from 1995 to 2007. Based on analysis of multiple outside rankings, Scalise is one of the most reliable Republican votes, meaning he can be considered a safe vote for the Republican Party in

Congress. Speaking at 2:00PM EDT – 2:30PM EDT

Congressman Mark Walker (NC): After serving almost two decades as a pastor – Congressman Mark Walker now represents the people of North Carolina in the United States Congress. Rep. Walker took on the challenges of reducing the waste and excess of the federal government, fighting human trafficking, and working on tax reform to help stimulate job growth and expand small businesses. In the 115th Congress, Walker was elected by his colleagues to serve as the Chairman of the Republican Study Committee. He is also the Co-Chairman of the Congressional Prayer Caucus which works successfully to promote efforts that protect the free exercise of religion for all Americans. Additionally, Walker is a member of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee, the House Committee on Homeland

Security and the Committee on House Administration. Speaking at 1:00PM EDT- 1:30PM EDT

Bob McEwan, Former Congressman (OH)/Executive Director of CNP:

Bob McEwen is the Executive Director of the Council for National Policy. He is a leading advocate for pro-family interests and free-market economics and maintains an active international speaking schedule. An Ohio native, McEwen, served three terms in the Ohio General Assembly, and six terms in the United States House of Representatives, where he was selected to the Select Committee on Intelligence (which oversees all of our nation's secrets) and the House Committee on Rules (which has jurisdiction over all legislation in the Congress). He will be greeting the Administrator when he arrives.

Bill Walton, CNP's Vice President: Mr. Walton is Vice President of Council for National Policy and a Senior Fellow at Discovery Institute. He is the chairman of Rappahannock Ventures, LLC (private equity), Rush River Entertainment and The Forge Studios, LLC. He has produced two upcoming feature films, Max Rose, starring Jerry Lewis and The Ticket, starring Dan Stevens. An early cut of Max Rose was screened at the Cannes Film Festival. Previously, he served as chairman of the board and CEO of Allied Capital Corporation (NYSE) from 1997 to 2010, when the company was successfully merged with Ares Capital. Bill serves on the boards of The Heritage Foundation, The Media Research Center and ForAmerica. He serves on the Trustees' Council of the National Gallery of Art and as an Advisor to the National Gallery of Art's Board of Trustees Finance Committee. He is also President of the Washington, VA Volunteer Fire & Rescue Company and is a life member of MENSA and the NRA. Bill will be doing the Administrators introduction before the speech.

Kellyanne Conway, Counselor to the President: Born on January 20, 1967 in Camden, Jersey, Kellyanne Conway worked as a professional pollster, running her own company and working with prominent Republican political figures to aid their efforts to connect with female voters. After running a super PAC organization for Senator Ted Cruz, Conway was hired by Donald Trump to work as campaign manager for his 2016 presidential campaign. With Trump's election as the 45th U.S. president, Conway became the first woman to run a successful presidential campaign, and she was hired as a top White House counselor. Will be in at the event.

William P. Mills is a businessman in commercial real estate. He is the president of several companies involved in commercial real estate, oil and gas investments in Lafayette, Louisiana. Previously, he was the vice president and executive director of Independent Petroleum Association. Mr. Mills serves on the Executive Committee of the Council for National Policy. He is the co-creator of New Life Foundation, Acadiana Crisis Pregnancy Center and Citizens for Quality Life. Previously, he was a member of the Louisiana Energy PAC, board member of the Louisiana Independent Oil and Gas Association, and finance chairman and treasurer of the Louisiana Republican Party. Mr. Mills received a Master's Degree from the University of Southwestern Louisiana. A father and grandfather, he and his wife Sandra live in Lafayette, Louisiana. Possibility of greeting the Administrator along with Bob McEwan